WCVD7

“The World Association for Veterinary Dermatology (WAVD) invites you with anticipation and excitement to participate in world class veterinary dermatology in the vibrant international city of Vancouver. The natural scenic beauty of the snow capped mountains provides the perfect backdrop for the cosmopolitan city and the ideal location for the 7th World Congress of Veterinary Dermatology. During the day you will be challenged by a programme that will deliver state of the art science, research and clinical advances in the field of veterinary dermatology. In the balmy summer evenings stroll down the the cobble streets of Gastown and explore the historic buildings, courtyards and mews. Enjoy the superbly fresh food, world class music and theatre venues and a nightlife of exquisite cuisine and culture. Take some time after the Congress to enjoy the sheer glory of this tranquil location, from hiking to kayaking, rock climbing to fishing in the breathtaking mountain scenery, the surrounding area of Vancouver is an outdoor lover’s delight.

Whether your interests include a tour of the local vineyards, trekking through rainforest trails, discovering the mysterious secrets of Granville Island or a whale watching excursion, Vancouver certainly has something to offer for everyone. WCVD7 will provide you with a once in a lifetime experience.

You can't miss it...”

The 7th World Congress of Veterinary Dermatology is organised under the auspices of the World Association for Veterinary Dermatology.
